Subject: Invitation to attend the National Workshop on building a gender framework for ACASA technologies- March 4, 2025, BARC, Dhaka

Greetings from the Bangladesh Agricultural Research Council (BARC), Farmgate, Dhaka!

Bangladesh Agricultural Research Council has been implementing the "Atlas of Climate Adaptation in South Asian Agriculture (ACASA)" project since March 2023 to August 2025 lead by Borlaug Institute for South Asia (BISA), India. Within the framework of the ACASA project, BARC is organizing a national workshop on building a gender framework for ACASA technologies on 04 March 2025 (Tuesday) at 9:00 AM at the BARC auditorium, Farmgate, Dhaka. The workshop will focus on addressing commodity segregation into the gender suitability analysis and operationalization and gathering expert opinions for Bangladesh Counterpart. Based on the input from Gender researchers, technology experts, extension workers, NGOs with field insights, government implementing agencies, and other experts considered relevant to this workshop, ACASA climate adaptation atlas will be prepared. The Executive Chairman, BARC will be present as the chief guest in the inaugural ceremony.

We cordially request you to attend the day-long workshop in aforementioned date and provide valuable insights.
