9[4C. (1) The Government may by notification in the official Gazette, constitute a Licensing Authority to grant licenses and to regulate the licensed Mailing Operators and Courier Services.

(2) The Authority mentioned in sub-section (1) shall consist of three members of whom one shall be appointed as chairman by the Government.

(3) The Government may, by rule,-

(a) provide conditions for granting license and operating the business of mailing services by such Licensed Mailing Operator and Courier Services;

(b) fix appropriate license fees and other charges and commissions for operating the Mailing services and Courier services;

(c) reserve certain rights and fix jurisdiction and areas for service and may also charge compensatory fees to cover the Government's cost of postal service coverage ; and

(d) keep provisions regarding standards, restrictions, rewards, dispute settlement, penalties for non-compliance and punishment for default and violation of the rules made under this Act by the Licensed Mailing Operators and Courier Services.]

Cancellation of License

10[4D. (1) The Licensing Authority may suspend or cancel a license granted under sub-section (2) of section 4B, if the Licensed Mailing Operator of Courier Service commits breach of any of the conditions of the license :

Provided that in the case of cancellation of any license, the licensee shall be served with a show cause notice of fifteen days and be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(2) Any person being aggrieved by the order of the Licensing Authority under sub-section (1) may apply to the government for reviewing the impugned order within thirty days from the date of the order and the decision of the government shall be final.]

Certain persons expressly forbidden to convey letters.

5. Wherever within Bangladesh posts or postal communications are established by the Government, the following persons are expressly forbidden to collect, carry, tender or deliver letters, or to receive letters for the purpose of carrying or delivering them, although they obtain no hire, reward or other profit or advantage for so doing, that is to say:—

(a) common carriers of passengers or goods, and their servants or agents, except as regards letters solely concerning goods in their carts or carriages;

(b) owners and masters of vessels sailing or passing on any river or canal in Bangladesh, or between any ports or places in Bangladesh, and their servants or agents, except as regards letters solely concerning goods on board, and except as regards postal articles received for conveyance under Chapter VIII; and

(c) owners, pilots and other members of the crew of aircraft flying from or to any airports in Bangladesh.

Exemption from liability for loss, misdelivery, delay or damage.

6. The Government shall not incur any liability by reason of the loss, misdelivery or delay of, or damage to, any postal article in course of transmission by post, except in so far as such liability may in express terms be undertaken by the Government as hereinafter provided; and no officer of the Post Office shall incur any liability by reason of any such loss, misdelivery, delay or damage, unless he has caused the same fraudulently or by his wilful act or default.

CHAPTER III POSTAGE

Power of fix rates of inland postage.

7.(1) The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, fix the rates of postage and other sums to be charged in respect of postal articles sent by the inland post under this Act, and may make rules as to the scale of weights, terms and conditions subject to which the rates so fixed shall be charged:

Provided that the highest rate of postage, when prepaid, shall not exceed the rate set forth for each class of postal articles in the first schedule.

(2) Unless and until such notification as aforesaid is issued, the rates set forth in the said schedule shall be the rates chargeable under this Act.

(3) The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, declare what packets may be sent by the inland post as book, pattern and sample packets within the meaning of this Act.

Power to make rules as to payment of postage and fees in certain cases.

8. The Government may, by rule,—

(a) require the prepayment of postage on inland postal articles or any class of inland postal articles, and prescribe the manner in which prepayment shall be made;

(b) prescribe the postage to be charged on inland postal articles when the postage is not prepaid or is insufficiently prepaid:

(c) provide for the redirection of postal articles and the transmission by post of articles so redirected, either free of charge or subject to such further charge as may be specified in the rules; and

(d) prescribe the fees to be charged for the “express delivery” of postal articles, in addition to, or instead of, any other postage chargeable thereon under this Act.

Explanation— “Express delivery” means delivery by a special messenger or conveyance.

Power to make rules as to registered newspapers.

9. (1) The Government may make rules providing for the registration of newspapers for transmission by inland post as registered newspapers.

(2) For the purpose of such registration, every publication, consisting wholly or in great part of political or other news, or of articles relating thereto, or to other current topics, with or without advertisements, shall be deemed a newspaper, subject to the following conditions, namely:—

(a) that it is published in numbers at intervals of not more than thirty-one days; and

(b) that it has a bona fide list of subscribers.

(3) An extra or supplement to a newspaper, bearing the same date as the newspaper and transmitted therewith, shall be deemed to be part of the newspaper:

Provided that no such extra or supplement shall be so deemed unless it consists wholly or in great part of matter like that of the newspaper and has the title and date of publication of the newspaper printed at the top of each page.

Explanation—Nothing in this section or in the rules thereunder shall be construed to render it compulsory to send newspapers by the inland post.

Power to declare rates of foreign postage.

10. (1) Where arrangements are in force with ¹¹[any foreign country], for the transmission by post of postal articles between Bangladesh and ¹²[such country] the Government may, in conformity with the provisions of such arrangements, declare what postage rates and other sums shall be charged in respect of such postal articles, and may make rules as to the scale of weight, terms and conditions subject to which the rates so declared shall be charged.

(2) Unless and until such declaration as aforesaid is made, the existing rates and regulations shall continue in force.

Liability for payment of postage.

11.(1) The addressee of a postal article on which postage or any other sum chargeable under this Act is due, shall be bound to pay the postage or sum so chargeable on his accepting delivery of the postal article, unless he forthwith returns it unopened:

Provided that, if any such postal article appears to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General to have been maliciously sent for the purpose of annoying the addressee, he may remit the postage.

(2) If any postal article on which postage or any other sum chargeable under this Act is due, is refused or returned as aforesaid, or if the addressee is dead or cannot be found, then the sender shall be bound to pay the postage or sum due thereon under this Act.

Recovery of postage and other sums due in respect of postal articles.

12. If any person refuses to pay any postage or other sum due from him under this Act in respect of any postal article, the sum so due may, on application made by an officer of the Post Office authorized in this behalf by the written order of the Postmaster General, be recovered for the use of the Post Office from the person so refusing, as if it were a fine imposed under this Act by any Magistrate having jurisdiction where that person may for the time being be resident; and the Postmaster General may further direct that any other postal article, not being on Bangladesh State service, addressed to that person shall be withheld from him until the sum so due is paid or recovered as aforesaid.

Customs duty paid by the Post Office to be recoverable as postage.

13. When a postal article, on which any duty of customs is payable, has been received by post from any place beyond the limits of Bangladesh and the duty has been paid by the postal authorities at any customs-port or elsewhere, the amount of the duty shall be recoverable as if it were postage due under this Act.

Post Office marks prima facie evidence of certain facts denoted.

14. In every proceeding for the recovery of any postage or other sum alleged to be due under this Act in respect of a postal article,—

(a) the production of the postal article having thereon the official mark of the Post Office denoting that the article has been refused, or that the addressee is dead or cannot be found, shall be prima facie evidence of the fact so denoted, and

(b) the person from whom the postal article purports to have come shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to be the sender thereof.

Official mark to be evidence of

15. The official mark on a postal article denoting that any postage or other sum is due in respect thereof to the Post Office of Bangladesh or to the amount of postage.

Post Office of ¹³[any foreign country], shall be prima facie evidence that the sum demoted as aforesaid is so due.

CHAPTER IV POSTAGE STAMPS

Provision of postage stamps and power to make rules as to them.

16.(1) The Government shall cause postage stamps to be provided of such kinds and denoting such values as it may think necessary for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The Government may make rules as to the supply, sale and use of postage stamps.

(3) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may,—

(a) fix the price at which postage stamps shall be sold;

(b) declare the classes of postal articles in respect of which postage stamps shall be used for the payment of postage or other sums chargeable under this Act ;

(c) prescribe the conditions with regard to perforation, defacement and all other matters subject to which postage stamps may be accepted or refused in payment of postage or other sums;

(d) regulate the custody, supply and sale of postage stamps;

(e) declare the persons by whom and the terms and conditions subject to which postage stamps may be sold ; and

(f) prescribe the duties and remuneration of persons selling postage stamps.

(2) Where separate parcel posts are established, parcels may be forwarded and conveyed by them, being detained, if necessary, in the Post Office for that purpose.

Power to deal with postal articles posted in contravention of Act.

23.(1) Any postal article sent by post in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act may be detained and either returned to the sender or forwarded to destination, in each case charged with such additional postage (if any) as the Government may, by rule, direct.

(2) Any officer in charge of a post office or authorized by the Post Master General in this behalf may open or unfasten any newspaper or any book, pattern or sample packet, in course of transmission by post, which he suspects to have been sent by post in contravention of section 20, clause (a) or of section 21 or of any of the provisions of this Act relating to postage.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in sub-section (1),—

(a) any postal article sent by post in contravention of the provisions of section 19 may, under the authority of the Post Master General, if necessary, be opened and destroyed: and

(b) any postal article sent by post in contravention of the provisions of section 20 may be disposed of in such manner as the Government may by rule direct.

Power to deal with postal articles containing goods contraband or liable to duty.

24. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, where a postal article suspected to contain any goods of which the import by post or the transmission by post is prohibited by or under any enactment for the time being in force, or anything liable to duty, is received for delivery at a post office, the officer in charge of the post office shall send a notice in writing to the addressee inviting him to attend, either in person or by agent, within a specified time at the post office, and shall in the presence of the addressee or his agent, or if the addressee or his agent fails to attend as aforesaid then in his absence, open and examine the postal article:

Provided, first, that, if the Director General so directs in the case of any post office or class of post offices, the officer in charge of the post office shall call in two respectable persons as witnesses before he opens a postal article in the absence of the addressee or his agent:

Provided, secondly, that in all cases a postal article, after being opened under this section, shall be delivered to the addressee, unless it is required for the purpose of any further proceeding under this or any other law or enactment for the time being in force, and that the opening of the postal article and the circumstances connected herewith shall be immediately reported to the Post Master General.

Power to deliver such articles to Customs authority.

¹⁵[24A. The Government may, by general or special order, empower any officer of the Post Office, specified in such order, to deliver any postal article, received from beyond the limits of Bangladesh and suspected to contain anything liable to duty, to such Customs authority as may be specified in the said order, and such Customs authority shall deal with such article in accordance with the provisions of the ¹⁶[Customs Act, 1969], or of any other law for the time being in force.]

Power to intercept notified goods during transmission by post.

25. Where a notification has been published under ¹⁷[section 16 of the Customs Act, 1969] in respect of any goods of any specified description, or where the import or export into or from Bangladesh of goods of any specified description has been prohibited or restricted by or under any other enactment for the time being in force, any officer of the Post Office empowered in this behalf by the Government may search, or cause search to be made, for any such goods in course of transmission by post, and shall deliver all postal articles reasonably believed or found to contain such goods to such officer as the Government may appoint in this behalf, and such goods may be disposed of in such manner as the Government may direct. In carrying out any such search, such officer of the Post Office may open or unfasten, or cause to be opened or unfastened, any newspaper or any book, pattern or sample packet in course of transmission by post.

Power to intercept postal articles for public good.

26.(1) On the occurrence of any public emergency, or in the interest of the public safety or tranquillity, the Government ¹⁸[* * *] or any officer specially authorized in this behalf by ¹⁹[it], may, by order in writing, direct that any postal article or class or description of postal articles in course of transmission by post shall be intercepted or detained, or shall be disposed of in such manner as the authority issuing the order may direct.

(2) If any doubt arises as to the existence of a public emergency, or as to whether any act done under sub-section (1) was in the interest of the public safety or tranquillity, a certificate of the Government ²⁰[* * *] shall be conclusive proof on the point.

Power to deal with postal articles from abroad bearing fictitious or previously used stamps.

27.(1) Where a postal article is received by post from any place beyond the limits of Bangladesh—

(a) bearing a fictitious postage stamp, that is to say, any facsimile or imitation or representation of a postage stamp, or

(b) purporting to be prepaid with any postage stamp which has been previously used to prepay any other postal article, the officer in charge of the post office at which the postal article is received, shall send a notice to the addressee inviting him to attend, either in person or by agent, within a specified time at the post office to receive delivery of the postal article.

(2) If the addressee or his agent attends at the post office within the time specified in the notice and consents to make known to the officer in charge of the post office the name and address of the sender of the postal article and to redeliver to the officer aforesaid the portion of the postal article which bears the address and the fictitious or previously used postage stamp, or, if the postal article is inseparable from the stamp, the entire postal article, the postal article shall be delivered to the addressee or his agent.

(3) If the addressee or his agent fails to attend at the post office within the time specified in the notice, or, having attended within that time, refuses to make known the name and address of the sender or to redeliver the postal article or portion thereof as required by sub-section (2), the postal article shall not be delivered to him, but shall be disposed of in such manner as the Government may direct.

Explanation— For the purposes of this section, the expression “postage stamp” includes any postage stamp for denoting any rate or duty of postage of any ²¹[* * ] foreign country and the impression of any stamping machine provided or authorized for the like purpose by or under the authority of the Government of such ²²[ * *] country.

CHAPTER VIREGISTRATION, INSURANCE AND VALUE- PAYABLE POST*Registration
articles.

28. The sender of a postal article may, subject to the other provisions of this Act, have the article registered at the post office at which it is posted, and require a receipt therefore; and the Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, direct that, in addition to any postage chargeable under this Act, such further fee as may be fixed by the notification shall be paid on account of the registration of postal articles.

Power to make rules
as to registration.

29.(1) The Government may make rules as to the registration of postal articles.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may,—

(a) declare in what cases registration shall be required;

(b) prescribe the manner in which the fees for registration shall be paid; and

(c) direct that twice the fee for registration shall be levied on the delivery of a postal article required to be registered on which the fee for registration has not been prepaid.

(3) Postal articles made over to the Post Office for the purpose of being registered shall be delivered, when registered, at such times and in such manner as the Director General may, by order, from time to time appoint.

Insurance
of postal articles.

30. The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, direct,—

(a) that any postal article may, subject to the other provisions of this Act, be insured at the post office at which it is posted, against the risk of loss or damage in course of transmission by post, and that a receipt therefor shall be granted to the person posting it; and

(b) that, in addition to any postage and fees for registration chargeable under this Act, such further fee as may be fixed by the notification shall be paid on account of the insurance of postal articles.

Power to require insurance of postal articles.

31. The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, declare in what cases insurance shall be required, and direct that any postal article containing anything required to be insured, which has been posted without being insured, shall be returned to the sender or shall be delivered to the addressee, subject to the payment of such special fee as may be fixed by the notification:

Provided that the levy of such special fee as aforesaid shall not impose any liability upon the Government in respect of the postal article.

Power to make rules as to insurance.

32.(1) The Government may make rules as to the insurance of postal articles.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may,—

(a) declare what classes of postal articles may be insured under section 30;

(b) fix the limit of the amount for which postal articles may be insured; and

(c) prescribe the manner in which the fees for insurance shall be paid.

(3) Postal articles made over to the Post Office for the purpose of being insured shall be delivered, when insured, at such places and times and in such manner as the Director General may, by order, from time to time appoint.

Liability in respect of postal articles insured.

33. Subject to such conditions and restrictions as the Government may, by rule, prescribe, Government shall be liable to pay compensation, not exceeding the amount for which a postal article has been insured, to the sender thereof for the loss of the postal article or its contents, or for any damage caused to it in course of transmission by post:

Provided that the compensation so payable shall in no case exceed the value of the article lost or the amount of the damage caused.

Transmission by post of value-payable postal
articles.

34. The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, direct that, subject to the other provisions of this Act and to the payment of fees at such rates as may be fixed by the notification, a sum of money specified in writing at the time of posting by the sender of a postal article shall be recoverable on the delivery thereof from the addressee, and that the sum, so recovered, shall be paid to the sender:

Provided that the Government shall not incur any liability in respect of the sum specified for recovery, unless and until that sum has been received from the addressee.

Explanation— Postal articles sent in accordance with the provisions of this section may be described as “value-payable” postal articles.

Power to make rules
as to value-payable postal articles.

35.(1) The Government may make rules as to the transmission by post of value-payable postal articles.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may,—

(a) declare what classes of postal articles may be sent as value-payable postal articles;

(b) direct that no postal article shall be so sent unless the sender declares that it is sent in execution of a bona fide order received by him;

(c) limit the value to be recovered on the delivery of any value-payable postal article;

(d) prescribe the form of declaration to be made by the senders of value-payable postal articles, and the time and manner of the payment of fees;

(e) provide for the retention and repayment to the addressee in cases of fraud of money recovered on the delivery of any value-payable postal articles; and

(f) prescribe the fees to be charged for inquires into complaints regarding the delivery of or payment for value-payable postal articles.

(3) Postal articles shall be made over to the Post Office for the purpose of being sent as “value-payable” and shall be delivered, when so sent, at such times and in such manner as the Director General may, by order, from time to time appoint.

(4) No suit or other legal proceeding shall be instituted against the Government, or any officer of the Post Office in respect of anything done, or in good faith purporting to be done, under any rule made under clause (e) of sub-section (2).

Power to give effect to arrangements with other countries.

36.(1) Where arrangements are in force with ²⁹[any foreign country], for the transmission by post of registered, insured or value-payable postal articles between Bangladesh and ³⁰[such country], the Government may make rules to give effect to such arrangements.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may prescribe—

(a) the form of declaration to be made by the senders of such postal articles as aforesaid; and

(b) the fees to be charged in respect thereof.

CHAPTER VII

UNDELIVERED POSTAL ARTICLES

Power to make rules as to disposal of undelivered postal articles.

37.(1) The Government may make rules as to the disposal of postal articles which for any reason cannot be delivered (hereinafter referred to as “undelivered postal articles”).

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may,—

(a) prescribe the period during which undelivered postal articles at a post office shall remain in that office; and

(b) provide for the publication of lists of undelivered postal articles, or of any class of undelivered postal articles.

(3) Every undelivered postal article, after being detained at a post office for the period prescribed by rule under the foregoing provisions of this section, shall be either forwarded, free of further charge, to the post office at which it was posted, for return to the sender, or sent to the office of the Post Master General.

Disposal of undelivered postal articles as office of Postmaster General.

38.(1) Every postal article received at the office of the Post Master General under sub-section (3) of section 37 shall be dealt with as follows:-

(a) if practicable, it shall be redirected and forwarded by post to the addressee; or,

(b) if it cannot be redirected and forwarded as aforesaid, it shall be opened by some officer, appointed by the Post Master General in this behalf and bound to secrecy, in order to ascertain the name and address of the sender.

(2) If the name and address of the sender are so ascertained, it shall be returned by post to the sender, free of further charge or subject to such further charge as the Government may, by rule, direct.

Final disposal of undelivered postal articles.

39. Undelivered postal articles which cannot be disposed of under the foregoing provisions, shall be detained in the office of the Post Master General for such further period (if any), and shall be dealt with in such manner, as the Government may, by rule, direct:

Provided that—

(a) letters and postcards shall be destroyed;

(b) money or saleable property, not being of a perishable nature, found in any undelivered postal article, shall be detained for a period of one year in the office of the Post Master General, and, if on the expiration of that period no person has established his right thereto, shall, if money, be credited to the Post Office, and, if saleable property, be sold, the sale-proceeds being credited to the Post Office.

CHAPTER VIII

SHIP LETTERS

Duty of master of ship, departing from any port in Bangladesh, and not being a mail ship, to convey mail bags.

40. The master of a ship, not being a mail ship, about to depart from any port in Bangladesh to any port within, or any port or place beyond, Bangladesh shall receive on board any mail bag tendered to him by any officer of the Post Office for conveyance, granting a receipt therefor in such form as the Government may, by rule, prescribe, and shall, without delay, deliver the same at the port or place of destination.

Duty of master of ship arriving at any port in Bangladesh, in respect of postal articles and mail bags on board.

41.(1) The master of a ship arriving at any port in Bangladesh shall, without delay, cause every postal article or mail bag on board which is directed to that port and is within the exclusive privilege conferred on the Government by section 4, to be delivered either at the post office at that port or to some officer of the Post Office authorized in this behalf by the Post Master General.

(2) If there is on board any postal article or mail bag which is directed to any other place within Bangladesh and is within the exclusive privilege aforesaid, the master shall, without delay, report the fact to the officer in charge of the post office at the port of arrival and act according to the directions he may receive from such officer, and the receipt of such officer shall discharge him from all further responsibility in respect of the postal article or mail bag.

Allowance of gratuities for conveyance of postal articles by ships other than mail ships.

42. The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, declare what gratuities shall be allowed to masters of ships, not being mail ships, in respect of postal articles received by them for conveyance on behalf of the Post Office ; and the master of a ship, not being a mail ship, about to leave any port in Bangladesh as aforesaid shall, if he receives on board a mail bag for conveyance, be entitled to demand and obtain immediately the amount of the gratuity payable under this section in respect of the mail bag and its contents.

CHAPTER IX MONEY ORDERS

Power to maintain money order system and to make rules as to remittances thereby.

43.(1) The Government may provide for the remitting of small sums of money through the Post Office by means of money orders, and may make rules as to such money orders.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may prescribe,—

(a) the limit of amount for which money orders may be issued;

(b) the period during which money orders shall remain current; and

(c) the rates of commission or the fees to be charged on money orders or in respect thereof.

Power for remitter to recall money order or alter name of payee.

44.(1) Subject to such conditions as the Government may, by rules made under section 43, prescribe in respect of the levy of additional rates of commission or fees or any other matters, a person remitting money through the Post Office by means of a money order may require that the amount of the order if not paid to the payee be repaid to him or be paid to such person other than the original payee as he may direct.

(2) If neither the payee nor the remitter of a money order can be found and if within the period of one year from the date of the issue of the order no claim is made by such payee or remitter, the amount of such order shall not be claimable from the Government.

Power to provide for the issue of postal orders.

45. The Government may authorize the issue in such form as may be suitable of money orders to be called postal orders or by such other designation as may be deemed appropriate for certain fixed amounts and may make rules as to the rates of commission to be charged thereon and the manner in which and conditions subject to which they may issued paid and cancelled:

Provided that no such order shall be issued for an amount in excess of ³¹[Fifty Taka].

Power to give effect to arrangements with other countries.

46.(1) Where arrangements are in force with ³²[any foreign country] for the issue and payment through the Post Office of money orders between Bangladesh and ³³[such country], the Government may make rules to give effect to such arrangements.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may prescribe,—

(a) the manner in which, and the conditions subject to which, such orders may be issued and paid in Bangladesh; and

(b) the rates of commission to be charged thereon.

Recovery of money order paid to the wrong person.

47. If any person, without reasonable excuse, the burden of proving which shall lie on him, neglects or refuses to refund—

(a) any amount paid to him in respect of a money order by an officer of the Post Office in excess of what ought to have been paid to him in respect thereof, or

(b) the amount of a money order paid by an officer of the Post Office to him instead of to some other person to whom it ought to have been paid, such amount shall be recoverable by an officer of the Post Office authorized by the Post Master General in this behalf from the person so neglecting or refusing as if it were an arrear of land-revenue due from him.

Exemption from liability in respect of money orders.

48. No suit or other legal proceeding shall be instituted against the Government or any officer of the Post Office in respect of—

(a) anything done under any rules made by the Government under this Chapter; or

(b) the wrong payment of a money order caused by incorrect or incomplete information given by the remitter as to the name and address of the payee, provided that, as regards incomplete information, there was reasonable justification for accepting the information as a sufficient description for the purpose of identifying the payee; or

(c) the payment of any money order being refused or delayed by, or on account of, any accidental neglect, omission or mistake, by, or on the part of, an officer of the Post Office, or for any other cause whatsoever, other than the fraud or wilful act or default of such officer; or

(d) any wrong payment of a money order after the expiration of one year from the date of the issue of the order; or

(e) any wrong payment or delay in payment of a money order beyond the limits of Bangladesh by an officer of any post office, not being one established by the Government.
