“শব্দ ও চিত্রের মাধ্যমে অতীতকে ধারণ”

Bangladesh Film Archive (BFA) celebrates World Day for Audiovisual Heritage with a number of activities including film screening on Sunday in Bangladesh capital Dhaka. The day falls on 27 October. The programme will be organized at the Projection Hall (2 level) of the BFA building.

The day’s programme will begin with the screening of documentary titled Historic March 7 Speech. The documentary is based on the historical speech of the Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujiber Rahman that was delivered on 7th March, 1971 in Dhaka at a gathering of 2 million of people. The speech inspired the Bangalis to take part in glorious War of Liberation against the Pakistani occupation forces. Recently, UNESCO added the historic speech in the Memory of the world Register as a documentary heritage.

Later, Mukh O Mukhosh, the first Bangla language feature film released in 1956 will be also screened. The film was made by Abdul Jabbar Khan. Thus the BFA will uphold the past through Sounds , Image and History.
