Handwritten notes in a grid format, likely a ledger or account book. The entries consist of numbers and some illegible text, possibly representing financial transactions or inventory records. The numbers are arranged in columns, with some entries having multiple lines of text.

Small printed text at the bottom of the page, likely a footer or page information. It includes some numbers and small characters, possibly indicating page numbers or a reference code.
