INFORMATION ON AWARD
22. Brief Description of Contract	The TSU firm will work closely with both the DPHE and the municipalities' leaders and officers to encourage local ownership of project and build capacity for sustainable operations. To ensure smooth implementation of project activities through clear lines of accountability, the national TSU personnel (including the National Project Team Leader, Civil/Environmental Engineering Specialist, FM Specialist, and two Gender Specialists) will oversee the regional cluster teams. There will be six regional TSUs to help implement project activities in physically proximate municipality clusters, so that some TSUs may include municipalities that may not be part of that administrative unit but are reasonably close to other municipalities in the region.
