

Nabil Jasim Ahmad

Executive Director, Standards Setting and Audit Practice Review Division
Financial Reporting Council (FRC)

Mr. Nabil Jasim Ahmad is a seasoned professional with over 25 years of multifaceted leadership experience across the financial, telecommunications, and information technology sectors in Bangladesh, the USA, and Canada. A certified financial regulator in North America and an ISO-9000 Lead Auditor, Nabil brings a unique combination of global corporate expertise and a deep-rooted commitment to public service, particularly in the context of Bangladesh's economic transformation.

Currently serving as the Executive Director of the Standard Setting and Audit Practice Review Division at the Financial Reporting Council (FRC) of Bangladesh, Mr. Ahmad plays a critical role in shaping the country's financial reporting and auditing landscape. His work focuses on developing, enforcing, and aligning Bangladesh's financial regulations with international standards such as IFRS and ISA. He leads cross-functional teams and oversees risk-based inspections of audit firms working with high-risk or systemically important entities, fostering accountability, compliance, and public trust in the financial ecosystem. He also advises the FRC Board and represents Bangladesh in national and international regulatory forums.

Prior to joining FRC, Mr. Ahmad held senior leadership roles in top-tier global firms including Ericsson, Nokia, Alcatel and World Financial Group where he led finance transformations and forged strategic partnerships, enhancing client-centric financial services across North America.

Mr. Ahmad holds an MBA in Finance and Marketing from Webster University (USA), an M.S. in Telecommunications Management from Oklahoma State University (USA), and a BBA from IBA, University of Dhaka.

Recognized multiple times for leadership and performance—including awards from WFG, Ericsson, and Alcatel-Lucent - he is also actively involved in professional and civic organizations such as IEEE, Rotary Club (USA & Canada), IBA Alumni Association, and the International Farakka Committee.

Driven by a passion for excellence and service, Nabil Jasim Ahmad now seeks to contribute meaningfully to Bangladesh's nation-building efforts by applying his global experience and regulatory acumen to its evolving financial and technological landscape.
