

SUBJECTS FOR THE FIRST PROFESSIONAL
BHMS COURSE (1st and 2nd Year)
First Professional BHMS Course

ORGANON OF MEDICINE

A. Subject Aims:

The aims of this subject are to build a significant professional group who will be efficient enough with knowledge about homoeopathic system of treatment and the physician will able-

1. to impart knowledge about the aim and goal of the homoeopathic system of treatment.
2. to improve community health. homoeopathic treatment, and
3. Proceed to undergo higher studies.

B. Subject Objectives:

At the end of the learning the various aspects of organon of medicine the students be able to-

1. Understand and appreciate the homoeopathic system of treatment.
2. Understand and correlate with the other subjects taught in the pre-clinical and also in para-clinical and clinical courses.
3. Perform, understand & interpret the homoeopathic system of treatment.

C. Course contents:

The teaching of organon is spread over the year 1, 2, 3 and 4 of B.H.M.S course. The course (Aphorisms of organon) is splitted in three Prof. (1st, 2nd and 3rd prof) Examination shone below

- * Hom-101: Introduction to Organon; Aphorism 1 to 82 including foot notes.

- * Hom-201: Aphorism 83 to 171 including foot notes.
- * Hom-301: Aphorism 172 to 291 including foot notes.

First professional BHMS examination will be conducted together with other subjects at the end of the year 2 of the course.

D. Course composition & teaching hours:

1. Theoretical lectures..... 160 hours.
2. Tutorials.....50 hours.
3. Seminars and discussion sessions.....20 hours
230 hours.

E. Evaluation in the first professional BHMS examination :

Throughout the two-years course, provision for continuous assessment of students' performance is recorded in pre-designed assessment Cards.

Theory (MCQ-25% + SAQ 75%) ... 100 marks.

Oral/Viva-voce..... 50 marks.

(Viva-voce--40 marks. Note book--10 marks.)
150 marks.

ORGANON OF MEDICINE

Hom - 101

Detailed Course Contents:

A. Introduction:

1. Introduction to Organon including the meaning of the word.
2. Variations in the different editions of Organon.
3. Exposition of prefaces and introductions to different editions with special reference to the 5th & 6th editions.

B. Aphorism:

(Lectures to be completed from aphorism I to 82 including foot notes with their clarification, comprehension and question relations).

1. Aim of a physician (Aphorism-1)
2. Cure, (Aphorism-1)
3. Ideal of cure (Aphorism-2).
4. Real physician or qualities of a real physician (Aphorism-3-4)
5. Preserver of health (Aphorism -4).
6. Removal of exciting and fundamental causes of diseases (Aphorism-5).
7. Totality of symptoms (Aphorism-8)
8. Vital energy, vital force and vital principle (Aphorism 9-16).
9. Disease (Aphorism-11-16).
10. Dynamic power and dynamic influence (Foot note of Aphorism-11).
11. Process of curing diseases (Aphorism-17-23).
12. Homoeopathy is the only curative method of treatment (Aphorism-24-26, 53).
13. Homoeopathic law of cure (Aphorism-26).

14. Natural disease and medicinal power (Aphorism-30-33).
15. Susceptibility (Aphorism-31-32).
16. Allopathic system of treatment (Aphorism-24-29).
17. Homoeopathic system of treatment (Aphorism-43-53).
18. Compare between Allopathic and Homoeopathic system of treatment) Aphorism-54-69),
19. Antipathy (Aphorism-56-60).
20. Primary and secondary action of medicine (Aphorism 63-69).
21. Summary of the Homoeopathic system of treatment (Aphorism-70-71).
22. Knowledge of disease (Aphorism-72-82).
23. Acute and chronic disease; acute miasm (Aphorism-72).
24. Classification of acute diseases (Aphorism-72).
25. Artificial or medicinal chronic diseases (Aphorism 74-76).
26. False chronic disease (Apphorism-77).
27. Chronic disease (Aphorism-77).
28. Syphilitic and Sycotic miasm (Aphorism-79).
29. Psora miasm, psoric diseases and treatment (Aphorism-80-82).
30. Nomenclature of disease (Foot note no. 79 of Aphorism-81).
31. Necessity of case taking (Aphorism-82).

Note Book:

The note book must be submitted along with the progress card during examinations for evaluation by the examiners.