CALL FOR PAPERS

IPF Journal of Economics and Finance

The Institute of Public Finance Bangladesh (IPF) is an apex training institute of the Finance Division, Ministry of Finance (MoF). Apart from the training programs the Institute undertakes research and journal publication on contemporary economic and financial issues. IPF has formulated the "IPF Journal of Economics and Finance Publication Policy 2025". As per the policy IPF now intends to publish the 'January 2027 Issue' of the journal, for which scholarly papers are being invited. Manuscripts must be original and should address topics in the fields of economics and finance.

Submitted papers will be considered for publication based on the recommendations of a double-blind peer review process. In addition to peer review, manuscripts may also be evaluated by the editorial board. Rigorous checks will be conducted to prevent plagiarism and the use of AI-generated content.

Authors are requested to follow APA referencing style. Manuscripts must be typed and formatted as follows:

- Language: English (U.S.)
- Font: Times New Roman
- Font size: 12
- Line spacing: Single (1)
- Paper size: A4
- Margins: 1 inch (2.54 cm) on all sides
- Color: Entire manuscript, including text, shading, and graphs, must be monochrome (black and white).

During the preparation and submission of manuscripts, the guidelines of the "IPF Journal of Economics and Finance Publication Policy 2025" must be strictly followed. The said policy will be followed in selecting articles for publication in the journal. The policy is available on IPF's website (www.ipf.org.bd). Only soft copies of the articles, in both Microsoft Word (.docx) and PDF formats, must be submitted by email to: journal@ipf.org.bd ON OR BEFORE 31 December 2026. Each submission must be accompanied by a separate cover letter signed by the author(s). The cover letter must include the following information: name(s), contact details, institutional affiliation(s), and a declaration that the manuscript has not been published or submitted for publication elsewhere. Authors may be contacted if additional information is required.
