In January 2025, the Embassy of Bangladesh in Washington D.C. hosted an event as part of the Youth Festival 2025, attended by Bangladeshi-origin students, young professionals and others where the Ambassador and Deputy Chief of Mission interacted with them on various topics like feedback on consular services and cultural growth. They stressed on the importance of dialogue and encouraged youth to advocate for positive change in both Bangladesh and their local communities.

In February 2025, the Embassy hosted an insightful discussion with the Bangladeshi youth and professionals on the sideline of a consular camp in Houston, Texas. Minister Consular, interacted the gathering by emphasizing that every Bangladeshi abroad, serves as an "honorary ambassador" for the country. He encouraged the youth to take active roles in promoting Bangladesh's image, both culturally and economically, ensuring its interests are represented globally. Including the 2024 July-August uprising, the young people have been at the forefront of all transformative and nation building movements of Bangladesh.

The Embassy, in collaboration with Georgetown University, is organizing to host an event at the university in March 2025, as part of the celebrations for Youth Festival. The Embassy had intended to organize the event earlier; however, it had to be rescheduled to March due to the unavailability of the university's facilities at the planned time. During the event, the Embassy will focus on promoting Bangladesh through various engagement and apprise of the July-August uprising which will highlight the country's culture, history, achievements and future prosperity.
