The International School of Urban Sciences (ISUS) at the University of Seoul (UOS) is pleased to announce the recruitment for the 2026 Master of Urban Administration and Planning (MUAP) program, a full scholarship initiative designed to strengthen the capabilities of civil servants and public sector professionals in urban policy and planning.

Since 2008, this prestigious program—jointly offered by the Seoul Metropolitan Government (SMG) and the University of Seoul (UOS)—has been dedicated to fostering urban policy experts and enhancing the capabilities of public officials from around the world.

We are reaching out to your esteemed organization to share this valuable opportunity. We would be deeply grateful if you could circulate this announcement within your organization or share it with relevant government agencies and organizations to reach qualified candidates who can contribute to the future of sustainable urban development.

About the Program:

MUAP is a two-year master's program in urban planning and administration. Participants spend one year in Korea completing coursework and then return to their home country for another one year of thesis writing, ensuring both academic rigor and practical relevance.

Program Highlights:

- Full Financial Support: Tuition, accommodation, round-trip airfare, and living expenses
- Eligibility: Current position-holders as public officials or civil servants
- Language: English
- Application Deadline: March 11, 2026 (KST)
- Program Start: August 2026 in Seoul, Korea
