

National Maritime Institute (NMI) SELECTION PROCEDURE

Advertisements are issued across the country by the Department of Shipping & receives online application from unemployed youths.

1. SSC from any group with minimum GPA of 2.5 or equivalent for Deck, Engine, Cook and Steward Seaman (Rating) candidates. Age 16 to 25 years.

2. Diploma in Marine/Mechanical/Power/Automobile Engineering/Shipbuilding from any technical institute for fitter-cum-welder rating candidates

or

2 (two) years trade course after SSC/equivalent examination passed

or

Completed Welding course from BITAC or equivalent institution with minimum SSC/Equivalent or 3 Months training in machine shop. Age 20-35 years.

Age 25-45 years for retired sailors of relevant trades of Bangladesh Navy.

3. For Electrician rating; Diploma in relevant subject from any technical educational institution approved by the government or 2 years trade course after SSC/equivalent examination. Age 20-35 years. Age 25-45 years for retired sailors of relevant trades of Bangladesh Navy.

Written Examination

100 Marks Multiple Choice (MCQ) Written Test (Mathematics-30, English-35, Bangladesh and General Knowledge-35). The answer sheets shall be evaluated by OMR checking and quick results shall be published. Selection is based on merit list out of total 200 marks where 20 times of GPA obtained in SSC/equivalent examination is counted along with the marks obtained in the written test.

Final Selection

Final shortlisting by Integrated Seaman (Rating) Admission test Committee after written, oral, medical examination and Lantern Test at Department of Shipping/Mercantile Marine Department.

Training programme

Undertake training program after completion of admission on the date fixed by Integrated Seaman (Rating) Admission test Committee.

Course qualifying Examination

After 6 (six) months of training, the trainees have to participate in written, oral and practical tests to qualify.

Report to Shipping Master & obtain CDC.

As per the merit list of the trainees finally selected after the course completion examination, the Shipping Master issues CDC in their favor and registers them as ordinary seamen.

Service on board ship

As per the requirements of the shipping companies/agents, join the oceangoing ship as per the roster.

