

Mr. Md. Ali Hossain Fakir is the 32nd Inspector General of Police (IGP) of Bangladesh, the highest-ranking position in the Bangladesh Police. A distinguished civil servant with over three decades of experience in law enforcement, is widely recognized for his professionalism, integrity, visionary leadership, and commitment to modernizing policing through technology and innovation.

Early Life and Education

Born in 1968 in Bagerhat District, Mr. Ali pursued his higher education in Management Studies at the University of Dhaka. He also obtained a Postgraduate Diploma in Human Resource Management (HRM) from the Institute of Personnel Management, Dhaka.

Entry into Police Service

Mr. Md. Ali Hossain Fakir joined the Bangladesh Police in 1995 as an Assistant Superintendent of Police (ASP) after successfully qualifying in the Bangladesh Civil Service (BCS) Examination.

Professional Career

Mr. Md. Ali Hossain Fakir assumed the office of Inspector General of Police on 25 February 2026. Throughout his distinguished career, he has demonstrated exceptional dedication to public service, professional excellence, and organizational leadership. He has served in a wide range of operational and strategic positions within the Bangladesh Police. Among his notable field assignments, he served as Superintendent of Police in Netrokona, Feni, and Magura districts. He also held several key positions within the Dhaka Metropolitan Police (DMP). Prior to his appointment as IGP, he served as Additional Inspector General of Police and Chief of the Armed Police Battalion (APBn), where he played a pivotal role in strengthening operational capabilities and institutional effectiveness.

International Engagement

Mr. Md. Ali Hossain Fakir has extensive experience in international peacekeeping operations under the United Nations. He served with distinction in UN Peacekeeping Missions in Kosovo and Côte d'Ivoire, contributing to international peace, security, and post-conflict stabilization efforts.

Training and Professional Development

Throughout his career, Mr. Ali has participated in numerous professional training programs and executive development courses both at home and abroad. Notable among these are specialized training in Cyber Security in the United Kingdom and Vital Installations Security and VVIP Protection in New Mexico, United States of America.

Professional and Social Engagement

In addition to his official responsibilities, Mr. Ali actively contributes to professional and social organizations. He currently serves as the General Secretary of the 15th BCS Forum, and Convener of the 15th BCS Police Forum. He is also associated with various educational, social, and cultural institutions, reflecting his commitment to community development and public welfare.

Leadership Philosophy

Known for his field-oriented leadership and people-centric approach, Mr. Ali consistently advocates professionalism, accountability, transparency, and service excellence within the police force. He is regarded as a pragmatic and progressive leader dedicated to strengthening institutional capacity, enhancing operational efficiency, and fostering public trust in law enforcement.

Personal Life

Mr. Md. Ali Hossain Fakir is married to Professor Nasima Ferdousi. They are blessed with a son and a daughter.